Joseph and the Coat

By Dorothy J. Vedder and Tammy Waldrop

Today's sermon comes from the story of Joseph and the coat of many colors. The story of Joseph and his family struggles bears a remarkable resemblance to our present day relational situations. We, like them, sometimes make unwise decisions that lead us into sinning against one another. These sins often bring heartbreaking results. However, there is good news! God will gladly take a repentant heart and bring great good out of sin's consequences.
